BIRTH, DEATH, MARRIAGE & ADOPTION CERTIFICATES

Birth, Death, Marriage and Adoption Certificates are issued by the Registrar General in Guyana. It is therefore necessary for the application to be made directly to that Office.

PROCESS

- Obtain the application form from the High Commission or online.
- Complete the form ensuring that you enter accurate information (for example, the exact place of birth in Guyana, that is, street, hospital or village). Please attach a copy of birth certificate, if in possession of an old copy.
- Send form and fees (an international bank draft in the amount of five US dollars (US$5.00) to cover the processing fee and return postage.
- It is advised that a covering letter be sent with the application stating very clearly the address to which the certificate should be returned.

The Registrar General address is as follows:
