

Accreditation of Guyana's Permanent Delegate to UNESCO

H.E. Frederick Hamley Case High Commissioner of Guyana to the United Kingdom presented his credentials to the Ms. Audrey Azoulay, Director General of UNESCO as the Permanent Delegate of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana to UNESCO on 1 March 2019. During his meeting with the Director General the Permanent Delegate engaged in discussions on the enhancement of Guyana within UNESCO; exploring how best the country could access programmes beneficial to national development and raise its profile within the Organisation.